Australasian Dance Collective

Welcome

Australasian Dance Collective (ADC) acknowledges the Traditional Custodians of country throughout Australia and their deep connections to land, sea and community. We pay our respect to their elders past and present and extend that respect to all Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander peoples today.

About ADC

Established in 1984 as Expressions Dance Company by Maggi Sietsma AM, the company has created more than 200 works by national and international choreographers. Harnessing the talent of an extraordinary ensemble of six dancers, the company has achieved significant recognition through national awards, including three Helpmann Awards and three Australian Dance Awards.

Brisbane-based ADC is a significant cultural resource and a leading provider of dance performance and sector development. We recognise the need to be nationally and internationally connected, represented through our diverse range of local and global partnerships.

Our core desire is to harness the power of the collective. Our signature is one of plurality, not a singular fingerprint. In all areas of creation and performance, we work as a collective where like-minded individuals have robust and invigorating conversations that give rise to new dance, to new art.

ADC invests in artists and art and cultivates interdisciplinary collaborations and imaginative partnerships. Through dance, we embrace an intergenerational focus and innovative co-creations – eliciting and presenting these myriad voices and forms to create something never seen before.

Our Vision

Under the artistic leadership of Amy Hollingsworth, Artistic Director & CEO, the company has an unapologetically ambitious vision. Above all, we embrace collaboration, creating a welcoming vibrant environment committed to excellence and sustainability, where we work as a collective to share, shape and nourish our craft and community.

We commit to creating pathways for artists and arts workers, encouraging creative capability across generations, and building audiences — using our art to consider pressing issues facing us locally, nationally, and globally.

We work hard to connect with and exemplify relevance to our local communities, sharing our resources and infrastructure while striving to amplify our national and international significance through ambitious collaborations of scale.

Our Commitments

/ Invest in Art and Artists

Cultivate excellence in our artform and enable our artists and collaborators to flourish.

/ Reimagine our Spaces and Mediums

Redefine our boundaries and how we connect with audiences.

/ Build our Creative Civic Mission

Demonstrate how art is for all — empowering and enriching the lives of our collective and communities.

/ Cultivate Imaginative Partnerships

Use creativity and critical thinking to drive new partnerships and enterprises to support our art.
